WHY BINH DUONG?

Where Innovation Meets Investment Potential

Gathering impressive amounts of strategic partnerships to deploy cutting – edges solution for smart cities and industrial parks, Binh Duong is a promising land for investors and industry leaders. By 2030, this industrial city aims to obtain the modern infrastructure of smart cities.

PROMOTING RENEWABLE ENERGY

With a burgeoning industrial sector driving an annual electricity demand increase of approximately 12%, Binh Duong recognizes the imperative of sustainable energy solutions. Embracing renewable energy and rooftop solar power, the province charts a course towards green growth and sustainability, setting a precedent for eco-industrial park models nationwide.

GREEN INDUSTRIAL PARK

Binh Duong aims to develop a Green Industrial Park as part of its strategy for sustainable economic growth and environmental stewardship. The development of this type of industrial park aligns with global trends in promoting green technology and environmentally friendly practices in industrial operations.

JOURNEY TOWARDS SUSTAINABILITY

Committed to a net-zero future, Binh Duong pledges unwavering dedication to decarbonization efforts, catalyzing sustainable development and environmental stewardship across Vietnam.
